The GDPR (General Data Protection Regulations) came into force in May 2018. We can't use any information you may have previously supplied before this date. To comply we need your explicit consent to hold personal information and to contact you as defined by this form.

Your personal data recording your membership of the Elham Gardening Society will be held in a digital format on permitted computers (see below). Anyone else holding this information without your explicit consent should delete it.

Contact with you should only be made by permitted officers* of the Society's Committee.

All group emails to you should be sent out Bcc.

Normal contact will be by email, except when urgent circumstances require phone calls to be made. Sometimes it may be necessary to send you hard copy so your home address is also to be kept on file (e.g. for invoices, seed orders, tickets etc.)
*Permitted Officers: Gardening Society Committee members as follows:
Chairman, Vice Chairman, Membership Secretary, Treasurer, Show Secretaries. These officers are clearly listed on our website www.elhamgardeningsociety.org.uk
 Bcc means blind carbon copy. This allows the sender to do so privately. Any recipients on the Bcc line of an email are not visible to others on the list. This reduces the chance of your address being used by others.

I agree to my data being held by the Gardening Society. No other people will be given your information without your explicit consent.
